BBC Radio 3 (Andrew McGregor - 09.11.2013)

Andrew abstracts from Andrew McGregor talking about the performance of Dvořák's Symphony No. 8:

- orchestra with its own signature sound
- they sound as though they really love playing for him [George Szell]
- it's a vivid and warm recording, loads of detail, a welcoming recording

Ivan Hewett added:

- it's that wonderful combination of the extraordinarily characterful playing and the sound of the orchestra itself
- that famous Szell clarity is there as well
- an extraordinarily vivid sense of place and occasion
